Privacy Notice for pupils (also provided to parents and carers)

This notice explains how we use information about you and what we do with it. We call this information about you 'personal data' or personal information'.

Who we are

We are St Bede's Catholic Primary School & Nursery, have our principal site is at Canon Avenue, Chadwell Heath, Essex RM6 5RR.

Collecting and storing pupil information

We process personal data relating to pupils, parents, staff, Governors of our organisation.

We will not give information about our pupils to anyone without consent unless the law allows us to do so.

Storing pupil data

Any personal data that we are required to keep about pupils is securely stored, with limited access for staff. It will not be accessed except in response to a query about our actions in the education of a particular pupil. No decisions will be made about you based on this data and you will not suffer any detriment or harm by having it stored in/on our secure systems.

We keep an overall summary of attainment and performance of pupils in our school, in order to monitor trends in teaching and learning. This data is anonymised and does not allow us to identify individual learners, once they have left our learning community.

We use the pupil data to:

- support pupils and teachers in learning
- monitor and report on progress
- provide appropriate care and security
- assess the quality of our services
- comply with the law around statutory data sharing

The categories of pupil information that we collect, hold and share include:

- Personal information (such as – name, address, age, unique pupil number and photographs)
- Special Category data (such as – ethnicity, nationality, country of birth, biometric and medical information)

We use personal data about pupils and parents to ensure that we fulfil our legal obligation to offer educational opportunities to our pupils, and are able to look after the needs and requirements of everyone in our learning community. We use personal data about our staff to ensure that we can support them in offering teaching and learning and in their personal development.

Where we rely on consent to process personal data about individuals in our school, we ensure that we obtain that consent freely and in a positive manner. Anyone whose personal data is processed on the basis of consent can withdraw that consent easily and quickly. See “Requesting access to personal data & individual rights” listed later in this notice”.

Please note that the main reasons for our processing of personal information is due to

1. We need to, to comply with the law
2. We need to, to carry out a task in the public interest
3. We need to, protect someone’s interests
4. To communicate with you/parents/carers

A comprehensive list of data processing is kept in the school’s Record of Processing Activities. Within this register we will record the lawful reason for each instance of personal data being processed, along with special categories for sensitive information. Where there is limited statutory instrumentation the legal basis for processing special category of data will be 9(g) processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, on the basis of Union or Member State law which shall be proportionate to the aim pursued, respect the essence of the right to data protection and provide for suitable and specific measures to safeguard the fundamental rights and the interests of the data subject.

If you would like to discuss this in greater detail please contact the school’s Data Protection Administrator, details at the end of this form.

Who will see your personal data

We will only share your information with people who have a legal or operational reason to see it. For pupils, this could include anyone directly involved in planning, providing or supporting educational opportunities. For parents, this could include anyone who needs to be involved in conversations about your child’s progress at our school.

All staff personnel files are held securely by the HR department, and are only available to the HR team and senior management.

Personal data about Governors is held by the Clerk to the Governing Body. It is only available to the Clerk, and is kept in order to ensure that St Bede’s Catholic Primary School & Nursery complies with our legal obligations regarding Governance.

It is necessary in some circumstances, sometimes by the law, that personal information is processed, or used, by a third party to the school. These third parties are:

Data collection requirements

To find out more about the data collection requirements placed on us by the Department for Education (for example; via the school census) please see the following web link: - <https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools>.

The National Pupil Database (NPD)

The NPD is owned and managed by the Department for Education (DfE) and contains information about pupils in schools in England. It provides invaluable evidence on educational performance to inform independent research, as well as studies commissioned by the Department. It is held in electronic format for statistical purposes. This information is securely collected from a range of sources including schools, local authorities and awarding bodies.

We are required to pass information about our pupils to the DfE under Regulation 5 and Schedule 1 of The Education \(Information About Individual Pupils\) \(England\) Regulations 2013 as part of statutory data collections such as the school census and early years' census. Some of this information is then stored in the NPD.

This information will, in turn, then be made available for use by the Local Authority who, under strict information sharing protocols and policies, may also be required to share this information with other public sector partners such as other Local Authorities or local Children Centre.

To find out more about the National Pupil Database please see the following web link: -

<http://www.gov.uk/government/publications/national-pupil-database-user-guide-and-supporting-information>

The DfE may share information about our pupils from the National Pupil Database with third parties who promote the education or well-being of children in England by:

- conducting research or analysis
- producing statistics
- providing information, advice or guidance

The Department has robust processes in place to ensure the confidentiality of data is maintained and there are stringent controls in place regarding access and use of the data. Decisions on whether DfE releases data to third parties are subject to a strict approval process and based on a detailed assessment of:

- who is requesting the data
- the purpose for which it is required
- the level and sensitivity of data requested: and

- the arrangements in place to store and handle the data

To be granted access to pupil information, organisations must comply with strict terms and conditions covering the confidentiality and handling of the data, security arrangements and retention and use of the data.

For more information about the department's data sharing process, please visit:

<https://www.gov.uk/data-protection-how-we-collect-and-share-research-data>

For information about which organisations the department has provided pupil information (and for which project) please visit the following website:

<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/national-pupil-database-requests-received>

If you have questions, contact the DfE through their website: <https://www.gov.uk/contact-dfe>

Changing schools

As per The Education \(Pupil Information\) \(England\) Regulations 2005, we are required to pass pupil information on to schools that the pupil goes on to attend after leaving us. We do this via the Department for Education's 'School to School' (S2S) secure data transfer website. This also acts as a temporary information depository where a pupil has left us and the destination is not known to us.

The NHS

Information will only be passed to the NHS where we have a legal / statutory obligation to do so or where it is fully anonymous and cannot identify individuals, to the extent of no longer being personal data. Where the NHS otherwise require personal data for the provision of a service or research, parental and / or pupil consent will always be sought on a case by case basis.

CCTV

Our school uses Closed Circuit Television cameras for the purposes of monitoring our premises. There are visible signs showing that CCTV is in operation and images from this system are securely stored for 30 days where only a limited number of authorised persons may have access to them. We may be required to disclose CCTV images to authorised third parties such as the police to assist with crime prevention or at the behest of a court order.

Requesting access to personal data & individual rights

The General Data Protection Regulations and associated Data Protection Act 2018 allow parents and pupils the right to access the information that we hold about them. Additionally, the Education Act 1996 allows parent's the right to access most of their child's educational records. To make a request for information; please use the contact details that can be found at the end of this notice.

You also have the right to:

- object to processing of personal data that is likely to cause, or is causing, damage or distress
- prevent processing for the purpose of direct marketing
- object to decisions being taken by automated means
- in certain circumstances, have inaccurate personal data rectified, blocked, erased or destroyed; and
- claim compensation for damages caused by a breach of the Data Protection regulations

If you have a concern about the way we are collecting or using your personal data, we request that you raise your concern with us in the first instance.

International transfers and processing

We do not process any personal information outside of the European Economic Area.

Privacy Notice (How we use workforce information)

This notice explains how we use information about you and what we do with it. We call this information about you 'personal data' or personal information'.

The categories of school information that we process

These include:

- personal information (such as name, employee or teacher number, national insurance number, date of birth)
- personal contact information (address, contact numbers, next of kin)
- special categories of data including characteristics information (such as gender, age, ethnic group)
- contract information (such as start date, hours worked, post, roles and salary information)
- work absence information (such as number of absences and reasons)
- qualifications and employment records (such as work history, job titles, training records)
- recruitment information (such as copies of right to work documentation, references, copy of passport and/or driving licence)
- outcomes of disciplinary and/or grievance procedures

This list is not exhaustive, please contact the school's Data Administrator if you require more information.

Why we collect and use workforce information

The purposes and lawful basis for St Bede's Catholic Primary School to collect and use workforce data are as follows:

- a) to enable the development of a comprehensive picture of the workforce and how it is deployed
- b) inform the development of recruitment and retention policies
- c) enable individuals to be paid
- d) facilitate safe recruitment as part of our safeguarding obligations towards pupils
- e) allow better financial modelling and planning
- f) comply with the Department for Education (DfE) regulations

Under the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), the legal basis / bases we rely on for processing personal information for general purposes are:

- for the purposes of employment in accordance with the legal basis of Article 6 (b) processing is necessary for the performance of a contract to which the data subject is party or in order to take steps at the request of the data subject prior to entering into a contract;

In addition, concerning any special category data:

- 9 (b) processing is necessary for the purposes of carrying out the obligations and exercising specific rights of the controller or of the data subject in the field of employment and social security and social protection law in so far as it is authorised by Union or Member State law or a collective agreement pursuant to Member State law providing for appropriate safeguards for the fundamental rights and the interests of the data subject;

Collecting workforce information

We collect personal information via the recruitment process: application forms, qualification certificates, private documents etc.

Workforce data is essential for the school's / local authority's operational use. Whilst the majority of personal information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it is requested on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with GDPR, we will inform you at the point of collection, whether you are required to provide certain information to us or if you have a choice in this.

Storing workforce information

We hold data securely for the set amount of time shown in our data retention schedule.

We create and maintain an employment file for each staff member. This takes the form of a paper file and information is stored electronically on RM Integris. The information contained in this file is kept secure and is only used for purposes directly relevant to your employment. We also store information electronically via CPOMs/Staff Safe which is password protected and accessible only via key members of staff.

Who we share workforce information with

We routinely share this information with:

- our local authority (where applicable)
- the Department for Education (DfE)
- Inventory (door entry system) – we provide personal data necessary for Inventory to provide services under the lawful basis of consent
- CPOMs and Staff Safe
- RM Integris
- LBR Payroll
- Wendy Leach, independent HR advisor
- SAS – staff absence insurer (includes occupational health advice)

Why we share school workforce information

We do not share information about our workforce members with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

CCTV

Our school uses Closed Circuit Television cameras for the purposes of monitoring our premises. There are visible signs showing that CCTV is in operation and images from this system are securely stored for 30 days where only a limited number of authorised persons may have access to them. We may be required to disclose CCTV images to authorised third parties such as the police to assist with crime prevention or at the behest of a court order.

Local authority

We are required to share information about our workforce members with our local authority (LA) under section 5 of the Education (Supply of Information about the School Workforce) (England) Regulations 2007 and amendments.

Department for Education

The Department for Education (DfE) collects personal data from educational settings and local authorities via various statutory data collections. We are required to share information about our children and young people with the Department for Education (DfE) for the purpose of statutory data collection under section 5 of the Education (Supply of Information about the School Workforce) (England) Regulations 2007 and amendments.

We are required to share information about our school employees with the Department for Education (DfE) under section 5 of the Education (Supply of Information about the School Workforce) (England) Regulations 2007 and amendments.

All data is transferred securely and held by DfE under a combination of software and hardware controls which meet the current government security policy framework.

For more information, please see 'How Government uses your data' section.

Requesting access to your personal data

Under data protection legislation, you have the right to request access to information about you that we hold. To make a request for your personal information, contact the school's Data Administrator.

You also have the right to:

- ask us for access to information about you that we hold
- have your personal data rectified, if it is inaccurate or incomplete
- request the deletion or removal of personal data where there is no compelling reason for its continued processing
- restrict our processing of your personal data (i.e. permitting its storage but no further processing)
- object to direct marketing (including profiling) and processing for the purposes of scientific/historical research and statistics
- not to be subject to decisions based purely on automated processing where it produces a legal or similarly significant effect on you.

If you have a concern about the way we are collecting or using your personal data, we ask that you raise your concern with us in the first instance. Alternatively, you can contact the Information Commissioner's Office at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>

Withdrawal of consent and the right to lodge a complaint

Where we are processing your personal data with your consent, you have the right to withdraw that consent. If you change your mind, or you are unhappy with our use of your personal data, please let us know by contacting the school's Data Administrator.

International transfers and processing

We do not process any personal information outside of the European Economic Area, only in the case of an international candidate requesting us to do so.
